REPORT ON WORK DONE

Your report shall be divided into following sections:

Acquisition Work

Cataloguing and Classification Work

Circulation Work

Use and application of Information Technology

While writing on any Section e.g. on Acquisition Work, first of all define the term and concept of Acquisition theoretically based on some standard publications. Thereafter write step by step the tasks involved in Acquisition Work which you have learnt while doing the work in the Acquisition Section. You can make flow chart or diagram to present your explanation more understandable and attractive. Then report and discuss the work you have learned while working in this Section. At the end of this Section give full bibliographical details of the publications used for writing the theoretical framework. Likewise, you have to do for all other Sections as listed above.

For bibliographical information, use MLA Ver. 7 Citation Style <web Tool: www.easybib.com>:
